Statutory objective of the organisation. What does the organisation seek to achieve?

Theirworld is a charity organisation that is dedicated to combat the global education crisis and unleashes the potential of future generations. Theirworld projects support young people all over the world including premature babies, refugee children and girls in education. To achieve this, the organisational brings together its diverse network of youth, social entrepreneurs, campaigners, businesses and researchers to ensure all young people have the best start in life, a safe place to learn and skills for the future.

Outline of the policy plan

Please answer the questions below or provide an URL to the policy plan after the last question about the policy plan.

The online policy plan should at least provide answers to the questions about the policy plan asked here.

What are the institution's activities? When are which activities to be carried out? And how do the activities contribute to achieving the institution's objective?

Active in more than 140 countries, Theirworld offers a variety of projects and campaigns ranging from early childhood education centres, girls' entrepreneurship clubs, refugee education projects and youth skill initiatives.

Remuneration policy

Remuneration policy for the statutory board, for the members of the policy-making body and for staff (e.g. collective labour agreement or salary scheme).

No member of the Board shall have any ownership or hold any interest in property belonging to the Company, receive any form of remuneration, or have any other involvement, otherwise than as a Trustee in any other contract to which the company is a party.

The Trustees may be paid all reasonable travelling, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by them in connection with their attendance at meetings of the Board (or its committees or sub-committees) or General Meetings or otherwise in connection with the discharge of their duties but shall otherwise be paid no remuneration.

The pay of the staff is reviewed annually and normally increased in accordance with average earnings to reflect a cost of living adjustment. In view of the nature of the charity, the charity benchmark against pay levels in similar charities.

Activity Report
