Scotland (Second Level)

Health and Well-being

Mental, emotional, social and physical well-being

- I know that friendship, caring, sharing, fairness, equality and love are important in building positive relationships. As I develop and value relationships, I care and show respect for myself and others. HWB 2-05a
- As I explore the rights to which I and others are entitled, I am able to exercise these rights appropriately and accept the responsibilities that go with them. I show respect for the rights of others. HWB 2-09a
- Through contributing my views, time and talents, I play a part in bringing about positive change in my school and wider community. HWB 2-13a

Literacy and English

Listening and talking

- When I engage with others, I can respond in ways appropriate to my role, show that I value others' contributions and use these to build on thinking. LIT 2-02a
- When listening and talking with others for different purposes, I can:
 - share information, experiences and opinions
 - explain processes and ideas
 - identify issues raised and summarise main points or findings
 - clarify points by asking questions or by asking others to say more. LIT 2-09a

Social Studies

People in society, economy and business

- I can gather and use information about forms of discrimination against people in societies and consider the impact this has on people's lives. SOC 2-16b
- I can discuss issues of the diversity of cultures, values and customs in our society. SOC 2-16c

Wales (Progression Step 3)

Health and Well-being

How we process and respond to our experiences affects our mental health and emotional well-being

- I can reflect on the way that past events and experiences have affected my thoughts, feelings and actions.
- I can empathise with others.
- I can understand how and why experiences affect me and others.

How we engage with social influences shapes who we are and affects our health and well-being

- I can interact pro-socially in different groups and situations.
- I have developed an understanding that my values, attitudes and identity are shaped by different groups and influences.

Healthy relationships are fundamental to our well-being

Humanities

Human societies are complex and diverse, and shaped by human actions and beliefs

- I can respect the rights of others and I understand how these impact on myself and others.

Events and human experiences are complex, and perceived, interpreted and represented in different ways

- I can form, express and discuss my own opinions on a range of issues after considering evidence and the views of others.
- I can infer and compare people's opinions, viewpoints and interpretations from sources and evidence.
- I can begin to understand that interpretations are influenced by identity, experiences, viewpoints and beliefs.

Human societies are complex and diverse, and shaped by human actions and beliefs

- I can explore a range of ways in which identity is formed and some of the influences that impact upon diversity in society.
- I can describe and explain the ways in which my life is similar and different to others, and I understand that not everyone shares the same experiences, beliefs and viewpoints.
- I have an understanding of how factors in the past and present have shaped my communities.

Informed, self-aware citizens engage with the challenges and opportunities that face humanity, and are able to take considered and ethical action

- I have an understanding that injustice and inequality exist in societies. I also have an understanding of what human rights are and why they are important to me and other people.
- I can explain who is responsible for upholding rights in my locality and in Wales, as well as in the wider world. I also have an understanding that some people are denied their rights.
- I can understand that there are a range of factors that influence people's behaviour, actions and decisions.
- I can understand that there are a range of factors that influence my and other people's behaviours, actions and decisions, and that these include ethical and moral judgements and viewpoints.
- I have planned and taken an active role in response to challenges and opportunities in my local community, or in Wales or the wider world, and I have done so individually or as part of a team.

Languages, Literacy and Communication

Understanding languages is key to understanding the world around us

- I can listen empathetically to different people's viewpoints on various subjects.

Expressing ourselves through languages is key to communication
